10 year old Johnny discovers this interesting game called breakout on a boring day.

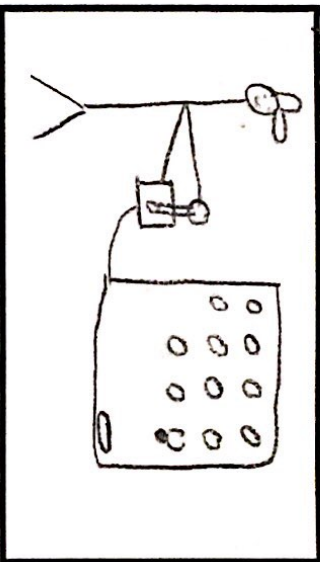

The ball breaks the block and Johnny moves his paddle so that the ball does not lose the screen.

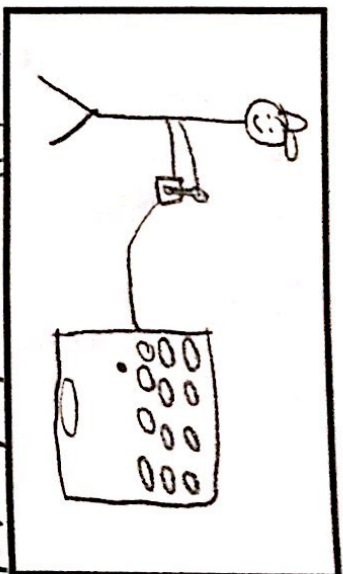

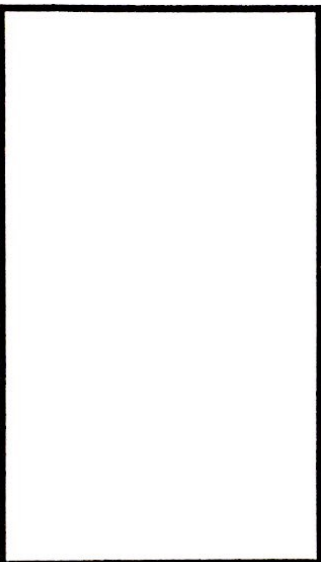

Johnny lost the game and thought that it was a lot harder then he initially thought it would be but still considers it fun.

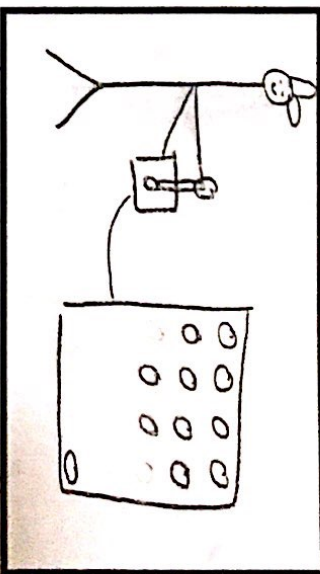

Johnny loads the game up with the ball starting on the middle paddle.

the ball hits the block which will then break and earn Johnny points in the game.

The ball is wrenched and about to hit the block.

Johnny mispiced his paddle so the ball went below the screen losing his last life
